30 WASHINGTON STREET, NEW BRITAIN, CT 06050

From the Exalted Ruler

Greetings my Brothers and Sisters in Elkdom! The cooler weather is upon us and soon the bustle of the holiday season will be here.

Our community schools have been in session for a couple of months now and it is the time of year to think about scholarships! The Elks National Foundation is very generous and provides 2 opportunities for scholarships. The first scholarship- Most Valuable Student has a due date of November 12. Any high school senior is eligible to apply. The second is the Legacy Scholarship which has a due date of February 3. The legacy scholarship is eligible to children and grandchildren of Elks in good standing. These are excellent opportunities to support the cost of higher education. Our lodge has also started to fundraise so that we can begin our own scholarship program right here in New Britain! If anyone has questions, please reach out to our scholarship chair, Kasia Tesz.

We had many great events in October, and it was great to have many new faces working together to make them a success. Italian night returned and was enjoyed by many! We were able to raise $1350 for our scholarship fund. The PER association ran a fantastic ELKtoberfest and it was enjoyed by many. The month ended with an awesome community event that supported our Veterans with Boxes to Boots and 911 for the troops along with trunk or treat for the kids, complete with Drug Awareness education and our mascot Elroy. Many thanks to the volunteers who made these programs a huge success.

November kicks off with our Second Annual Racking the Night Away on November 9. It's an exciting night of dinner and dancing to support our commitment to CTBHI. Avenue Groove has volunteered their time once again to bring us excellent music. Esteemed Loyal Knight Patrick Buden and Permittee Mary Schmitt, along with many volunteers will serve Prime Rib or Chicken Cordon Bleu! Tickets are available at the lodge or online at Elks957.org.

On November 11, we celebrate our Veterans at meatloaf Monday with a complimentary meal and Ritual for our Veterans. I want to personally thank all of our Veterans for their service to our Country. They continue to make our Country safe and deserve to be celebrated.

Our annual Hoop Shoot will be held on November 21, 4:30 PM at the NB Boys and Girls Club. This is a foul shot contest for kids 8-13 and any child can participate. We will need some volunteers.

November 22 is our Welfare Night! Each member should have received an envelope in the mail. This night helps us raise money for our members in need. Historically, it is a member only night, however you should have received one visitor ticket allowing you to bring one non-member. It is sure to be a great night for a great cause.

November is also special because we get to celebrate Stuart Topliff, DDGER! Please join us November 20, along with state dignitaries and representatives from Grand Lodge as we celebrate Stuart's homecoming. A prime rib meal will be served with a cost of $20 in which all proceeds will go to providing furniture for Veterans!

Lastly, I encourage our members to get in volved in the lodge! Volunteerism is the cornerstone of our lodge's vitality. Come to a meeting, sit on a committee or volunteer at an event. We are Better Together.

Fraternaly yours,
Shanon Tomassone
Exalted Ruler
